Introduction

In a rapidly-changing, chaotic world of today, systems and structures that were thought to be secure have become fragile, unstable, and difficult to understand. What kind of leadership and entrepreneurship mindset and skills, and what kind of human resources are demanded to thrive in such a society?

At Tokyo Tech Academy for Leadership (ToTAL), we are honored to invite Mr. Tom Pedersen, entrepreneur and consultant specializing in human resources, to speak about “Leading and Learning: Half a Century in Asia”.

Mr. Pedersen has worked in global financial services and consulting industries. His start-up companies have focused on growing leaders and fostering a culture of engagement, with an emphasis on human resource development and executive coaching.

Mr. Pedersen will share experiences of lifelong learning from his career working with students, entrepreneurs, and business leaders in Asia and take questions from the audience.

変化が激しい混沌とした現代社会では、安定していると思われていたシステムや構造が実は脆く、不安定で、因果関係が見えにくく、理解しにくくなっている。そのような社会で生き抜くためには、どのようなリーダーシップやアントレプレナーシップのマインドやスキルが必要で、どのような人材が求められるのだろうか。

リーダーシップ教育院（ToTAL）では、アジア地域をベースに約50年にわたり、金融・コンサルティング業界においてエグゼクティブコーチ・組織/人材開発コンサルタントとして、また、近年はベンチャー起業家として活躍されているTom Pedersen氏をお招きし、「Leading and Learning: Half a Century in Asia」と題してご講演を行っていただきます。

学生、起業家、ビジネスリーダーと長年関わってきたキャリアから得たご経験に基づき、これからの時代に求められる人材や生涯学習の重要性などについてお話いただき、参加者からのご質問にお答えいただきます。
